

You've never seen "Hamlet" quite like this!

You're invited to the 2019 Tampa Great Books Drama Conference, featuring discussions of two classics: William Shakespeare's "Hamlet" and Tom Stoppard's "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead" — it's been called a "dream pairing" and the opportunity to examine both plays in one sitting is indeed "devoutly to be wished!" Just follow these three easy steps to guarantee your place in the discussions:

1. Save the Date: June 19, 2019 (Wednesday) –

10 AM at the Unitarian Universalist Church Activities Building, 11400 Morris Bridge Rd., Tampa (minutes from the I-75/Fowler Ave. exits).

2. Write the Check: Complete the form below, and enclosed your check for $30 payable to Tampa Bay Great Books Council.

This fee covers your registration for all discussions and a copy of each of play, which we will order and ship directly to you. (All for less than 200 Danish Kroner!) We'll also be participating in a Potluck Lunch, with details to follow. Capacity is limited, so act now!

3. Watch the Tampa Great Books website for more details: www.tampagreatbooks.org or find us on Facebook!
